VOL. XXIV, NO. 131 GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA, THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1907 TEN CENTS A WEEK

FIVE YEARS IN PEN FOR 'FRISCO MAYOR

Convicted Official Is Sentenced For Extortion.

DRAMATIC SCENE IN COURTROOM

Court Was Crowded and Cheer After Cheer Went Up When the Judge Pronounced Sentence—Scene Without a Parallel.

San Francisco, Cal., July 10.—Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, convicted of extortion, was on Monday sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. When the sentence was pronounced there was a remarkable outburst of applause from the hundreds of persons who crowded Judge Dunne's court room.

Judge Dunne sentenced Schmitz to imprisonment in San Quentin pententiary. Sentence followed the recent conviction of Schmitz for extorting $1,175 from French restaurant keepers of San Francisco.

As the last words of the sentence fell from the judge's lips the great crowd that had stood throughout the dramatic scene sent up a thunderous cheer. "Goodby for you!" shouted a man in the back of the room. His ejaculation was echoed and re-echoed by one after another of the spectators. Several threw their hats into the air; others scrambled on chairs to look over the shoulders of the crowd. The greatest confusion prevailed.

Attorney Fairall, of the defense, raising his voice above the din, called out to Judge Dunne:

"Your honor, this cheering is a very unseemly occurrence."

"Well," retorted Judge Dunne with spirit, "if we had a sheriff worthy of the name it would have been stopped instantly."

Sheriff Thomas Odell was standing inside the trial rail and he turned to the court and protested:

"Nobody could have stopped that, your honor."

Special Agent Burns, of the prosecution, led a number of bailiffs and said:

"Clear the court room! Clear the court room!"

But only a few of the hundred and odd apparently delighted men obeyed the sharp order. Some of them hustled unceremoniously out into the hallways. About one hundred others kept their vantage places around the counsel table, where Schmitz sat dictating a statement to the newspaper photographers, who exploded flashlight after flashlight until the courtroom was so filled with smoke that it became stifling.

The sentence of the convicted mayor was in one respect without a parallel in the criminal annals of San Francisco.

Town Wiped Out by Fire.

Columbia, S. C., July 10.—Fire, believed to be of incendiary origin, wiped out the business portion of Holly Hill, a small town in Berkely county about 1 o'clock Monday morning, causing a loss of about $40,000, with insurance of about $15,000. Dogs have been sent to the scene with the hope of capturing the guilty party.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE

General Assembly Meets Again After Four Days' Recess.

Atlanta, July 10.—After an adjournment of four days the house met again Tuesday with each member's pockets, seemingly, bulging with bills to be introduced, and a repetition of last Monday was had in a lesser degree. Notwithstanding the fact that over 300 bills have already been introduced in the house and read for the first time, and not one-tenth will ever be placed on passage, over thirty bills were read for the first time Monday.

It was noticeable the great strength shown in each committee which carried with them the largest number of members ever noted in similar bodies. This will insure a large attendance upon each session and more than general interest by reason of the great mass of reform and general measures already introduced in the house.

As was predicted, Seaborn Wright of Floyd, heads the temperance committee. He is a great prohibition advocate and is strong in his belief that this measure will sweep the general assembly at this session.

Monday morning he was asked to call his committee to meet. He replied:

"There is no use of us meeting until after the senate prohibition bill passes that body and comes over to us. Then we are going to report it favorably in the committee room; pass it in the house, sing the Doxology and adjourn. It will probably be the latter part of the week before this happens."

The general judiciary committee is headed by Boykin Wright, of Augusta, while the special judiciary committee is again headed by R. B. Blackburn, of Fulton. This latter committee is to pass upon over a third of the bills already introduced in the house.

With the appointment of these committees, which was a source of universal congratulation in the house to Speaker Slaton, that body is now ready for work. The appointments were read out nearly a week sooner than ever before and this gives the house that much start on the session.

Lawmakers Reassemble.

Montgomery, Ala., July 10.—The adjourned legislative session assembled Tuesday, and the impression prevails that there will be about sixty days of it, though there is only thirteen days left of the regular session. It is expected that the governor will prolong the time as long as is necessary to do the work. It is thought now that the election of United States senator will not take place until Tuesday week, as there is a fear that to elect sooner would conflict with the federal constitution, which indicates that the election must take place on Tuesday after the assembling of the legislature. In that case Bankhead will not be chosen for a week.

Descendant of Many Kings.

Oakland, Cal., July 10.—The decendant of an unbroken line of kings and rulers extending along a dynasty of eight centuries, who is visiting the United States incognito, left Oakland Monday night on a trip to the Yosemite. He will return during the week. The name of the distinguished visitor is Prince D'Abro Pagratide of Cairo, Egypt. He is the son of Tigrane Pasha, the late prime minister of Egypt prior to the British occupation, and grandson of the reigning ruler at this time.

West Point Is Assessed.

Atlanta, July 10—Comptrolled General W. A. Wright has assessed the property of the Atlanta and West Point railroad, between Atlanta and the Alabama line, a total of $4,279,100. This is an increase of $1,802,623 over the company's return, which was $2,476,477. The assessment will be arbitrated.

Reward Is Offered.

Atlanta, July 10.—Governor Smith has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest of the unknown person who set fire to and burned the barn of R. L. Hardy, in Coweta county, on June 14 last.

AN ALL-NIGHT FROLIC ENDED IN TRAGEDY

Sailor Rocked Yawl, Which Capsized, Drowning Three.

ACCIDENT ON HUDSON RIVER

Yawl With a Party of Seven Men is Overturned and Three Find Watery Graves—Tug Picked Up Four of the Party.

New York, July 10.—Three members of the crew of the steam yacht Yacona, belonging to Henry Clay Pierce of St. Louis, were drowned in the Hudson river early Tuesday when a small yawl carrying six of the Yacona's crew and a dock man, was capsized by a sailor who rocked the boat. Four of the party were picked up by a passing tug.

No traces have been discovered of the three missing men, and the police are convinced that they are drowned. They are:

Rudolph Johnson, Frederick Von Borsen and Herman Von Borsen.

The Yacona came into port Monday after a week's cruise in Long Island sound, and Captain MacDonough gave several of the crew shore leaves.

Yawl Was Overloaded.

Six of the Yacona's crew came down to the landing at Eighty-sixth street early Tuesday after an all-night frolic, and hailed the Yacona for a launch. There was no answer from the yacht, and in their anxiety to get aboard, the sailors induced Gus Appleman, a dock man, to take them out to the yacht. The dock man wanted to divide the party and make two trips, but against his will all six piled into the yawl and started for the steam yacht. Several times during the trip Appleman warned his boisterous passengers to remain quiet as their movements threatened to overturn the craft.

Within a dozen boat lengths of the yacht, one of the sailors gave the yawl a violent lurch and she capsized, throwing all seven men into the river.

Clung to Overturned Boat.

Appleman succeeded in not only clinging to the keel of the overturned boat, but also assisted three of the sailors. All four were finally picked up by a tug which had been attracted by the shouts of the men. The crew on board the Yacona hearing the cries of distress, threw a powerful searchlight over the waters and lowered a boat to search for the three missing men. No traces of them could be discovered. The police searched the river without result.

Henry Clay Pierce, the owner of the yacht Yacona, is chairman of the board of the Waters-Pierce Oil company of Missouri.

Man Horribly Scalded.

Griffin, Ga., July 10.—Len C. Dawn, a machinist employed at the Griffin cotton mills, was horribly scalded by the overflowing of one of the large condensers in the engine room Monday morning, the boiling water falling on his back and head. He was carried to his home and medical attention given him. The young man is in a serious condition, but it is thought his injuries will not prove fatal.

Two New Banks.

Atlanta, July 10.—Charters were granted Monday by Secretary of State Phil Cook to two new state banks, namely, the Bank of Bluffton, in Clay county, with J. J. Hayes and others as incorporators, and the Bank of Colbert, at Five Forks, in Madison county, with W. H. Toole and others as incorporators, each with a capital stock of $25,000.

Bank Statements.

Atlanta, July 10.—State Treasurer R. E. Park has called on the 420 Georgia state banks for their quarterly statements showing their condition at the close of business on June 29. These statements must be in the hands of the state treasurer by July 15. When Treasurer Park first went into office there were just 140 state banks.

DEPRECATES WAR TALK.

Secretary of the Navy Worried Over Press and Public Comment.

Oakland, Cal., July 10.—Secretary of the Navy Metcalf deprecates the warlike aspect that has been given the order for the change of the battleship squadron from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast.

The secretary says that the proposed movement was that of a practice cruise and that the fleet would not be kept in the Pacific permanently. He declared that the length of time that the fleet would remain on the western side of the continent had not yet been decided.

With considerable emphasis the secretary voiced his opinion that the warlike insinuation that had been made in connection with the fleet's movement was not justified by the facts. In fact the widely published reports suggesting hostile preparations seem to be a source of irritation for the head of the navy. He said:

"The fleet which will be moved from the Atlantic to the Pacific this winter, is coming to this side merely on a practice cruise. The fleet will consist of sixteen or more vessels, not more than twenty-six, and its stay on this side will not be permanent. Of course the fleet will not come here and turn around and go back again. How long it will remain in the Pacific will be determined at the proper time.

"There is no sound reason or excuse for all this talk by the public and through the press of an attempt to overawe the Japanese by a warlike naval display. I do not believe that the newspapers are justified or right in at once construing and coloring the cruise of the warships to the Pacific.

"Every year the Atlantic fleet has been sent on a cruise. Last year it went to Guantanamo. This year it is the Pacific. The long cruise will give the men and the vessels a thorough test and improve the efficiency of both."

SIR KNIGHTS AT SARATOGA.

Thirteenth Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 10.—With 15,000 knights and many thousands of visitors, who do not belong to the order here, Saratoga is in gala attire, the occasion being the opening of the thirteenth triennial conclave of the grand encampment, Knight Templars.

Tuesday the great event of the week took place, the Templar parade in which nearly 15,000 sir knights took part. There were 50 bands. The parade was reviewed by Governor Hughes and staff, and the earl of Euston, of England, the personal representative of King Edward and Grand Master George M. Moulton, of Chicago.

At a meeting following the parade the governor fomally welcomed the sir knights to New York state. Afterwards, the governor held a reception at the Grand Union hotel.

The first meeting of the grand encampment for business will take place Wednesday, and Thursday the annual election of officers will be held.

EDUCATORS IN CONVENTION.

National Association Meets at Los Angeles for Annual Session.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—The fiftieth annual convention of the National Educational association convened here Monday for a 5-day session.

The meeting is one of the most important in the history of the organization. Matters of the highest consequence in the educational work of the association, including its re-organization, adoption of a new constitution and by-laws, and the election of officers will come before it.

Tornado in Nebraska.

Bloomfield, Neb., July 10—A small tornado swept the country near Alda in southern Knox county Sunday night, injuring four persons, one fatally and destroying several buildings. The Lutheran church in Columbia township was wrecked and a score of small buildings blown down. Crops were seriously damaged by the hailstorm which followed.

FATAL COLLISION ON THE MOBILE AND OHIO

Crash Occurred Short Distance From Whistler, Ala.

PASSENGER ENGINEER KILLED

Peculiar Combination of Circumstances Responsible for a Rear-End Collision—Negro Fireman Prevented a More Serious Accident.

Mobile, Ala., July 10.—In a rear-end collision on the Mobile and Ohio railroad about a quarter of a mile from Whistler, Ala., 5 miles from Mobile, between passenger train No. 6 and a light engine, one man was killed and three other persons injured. The dead:

Those injured:

Ben Evans, negro, fireman of the passenger train, both legs broken and supposed to be internally injured.

Thomas Murray, mail clerk, ribs broken.

Unknown negro woman, slightly injured.

The wreck would have been more serious but for the fact that the negro fireman, Ben Evans, discovered Engineer Dease in an unconscious condition, having been struck on the head by a mail crane a short distance from the passenger station. Evans noticing that the train should have allowed up its speed at this particular point, crawled over to the side of the engine occupied by the engineer and discovered him unconscious on the floor. He put on the airbrakes and stopped the train, but not until it had crashed into an extra engine.

The locomotive of the passenger train was derailed, the mail and baggage cars wrecked and partly thrown to one side.

Engineer Dease had his limbs torn frightfully, and he was injured about the head.

Evans was hurt in jumping from the train..

KENTUCKY FEUD CASES.

Ten or More Cases To Be Tried at Present Term of Court.

Sandy Hook, Ky., July 10.—At the traveling part of the journey on the special Judge W. B. Moody, of Hazlinence, arrived here Monday night and will call the cases of Judge Hargis and others charged with procuring the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox at Jackson, four years ago.

It is almost certain that ten or more cases would be called at this time. No witnesses for either side have been summoned, but Judge Moody will give both defense and prosecution ample time to summon witnesses, and it is likely that when the case is called court will adjourn until witnesses are summoned. The case of Judge Hargis will be the first to be tried.

All of the Hargis faction are in the city. They preceded Judge Moody who came with Attorney Floyd Hays and T. P. Cardwell, brother-in-law of Dr. Cox.

Glass Workers in Convention.

Detroit, Mich., July 10.—Three hundred delegates representing five thousand glass workers employed in the independent glass factories of the country were present when the annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Window Glass Workers of America was opened here Tuesday. There are a number of important business matters to come before the delegates and the wage scale for next year will be discussed.

Storekeeper Assaulted and Robbed.

Savannah, Ga., July 10.—Guilty Richmond, a storekeeper on the west side, was assaulted and robbed by a negro Monday morning. He was knocked unconscious by the supposed customer who was then going through the money drawer when he was discovered. He made his escape. Patrolman H. Jones, while hurrying to report the matter to headquarters, had his horse to fall and suffered a fracture of his right ankle..

IMPORTANT BUSINESS EVENT.

Today marks an important event in the business history of Gainesville. Today the old reliable banking house of H. F. Dutton & Co. ceased to exist, and today its successor, The Dutton Bank, opens its doors for business.

The Dutton Bank starts out with the entire confidence of the people. It is backed by an Alachua county institution, financed by Alachua county men and officered by Alachua county people. The entire stock is owned by home people, and among the directors are to be found a number of the wealthiest, safest business men in the county. The bank, therefore, begins its career intimately connected with the interests of the people of Alachua county, and is bound to grow strong and valuable as it grows in the building and development of the financial and commercial interests of this section. The Sun wishes our own home business institutions for business ability and their sound, safe and conservative methods. The new bank starts out financially and its management has the entire confidence of the financial interests of this section of the state.

The Sun congratulates the people of this city and county, and wishes the new institution the prosperity it undoubtedly deserves.

Judge Maxwell, of the Criminal Court of Record, Jacksonville, who was recently appointed to succeed Judge Call, is giving entire satisfaction on the bench of that city. "Jack" Maxwell is by no means unfamiliarly known to his friends, read law in Gainesville under Col. W. W. Hampton, and his numerous friends here know that he would "make good" as judge of the criminal court. His sentences so far have been tempered with mercy where he had reason to believe mercy was deserved, sentence being suspended in the case of several boys pending good behavior. The Sun believes that such action on the part of courts is calculated to do more towards reforming young men who have violated the law for the first time than all the reform schools in the country, and we congratulate Judge Maxwell upon his action in such cases.

Experts are forever trying to find out why there are more murders in the United States than any other advanced country. In the year 1906 there were 118 homicides in the United States to each million inhabitants; in Germany there were but four to each million; in Canada but twelve; in Great Britain only eight. For the last forty years the United States has been the great dumping ground for criminals from every part of Europe. Possibly this is a good point to begin the study of this stupendous problem.

Astronomers claim to have discovered a fine new canal on Mars. It is a great pity that we cannon find out their system, and whether they dig them by contract or commission.

A number of revisionist sheets declare that "tariff talk is in the air." And from all we can observe, that is where Uncle Joe Cannon intends it to remain.

THE THIRD TERM MENACE.

While the leading Republican newspapers of the country are, as a rule, opposed to the renomination of Roosevelt by the Republican party, there appears to be a systematic campaign going on throughout the country in favor of it. Evidences of that campaign are cropping out in such papers as The Washington Herald and The Atlanta Georgian, and in reading matter furnished by press bureaus and correspondents to many country papers. The plan seems to be to build up a distinct Roosevelt party, something on the order of Mr. Hearst's Independence League, which will be able to sandbag the Republican national convention, as Mr. Hearst's League sandbagged the New York Democratic State convention last year. The promoters of this scheme are proceeding by indirection. Their line of argument is illustrated by the following extract from an article in The Washington Herald of June 26, written in reply to an editorial of The Brooklyn Eagle:

"Mr. Roosevelt is not engaged in forcing his renomination. His attitude is not at all that of a candidate for a third term. He has not even countenanced a movement for his renomination. There is really no such movement, at any rate not in an organized or tangible form. What exists is a sentiment, or belief, that the President ought to be renominated. What if this sentiment should dominate the Republican national convention; what if the nomination, instead of being forced by Roosevelt, should be forced upon him? Would not such an eventuality put the moral aspect of the President's election right declaration in an entirely different light from that in which The Eagle views it? The Eagle has ignored the more probable contingency for a less probable, if not altogether impossible one. There is a vital distinction between the two."

Such talk as this is appearing constantly in a class of papers which have no claim to leadership in either party. And it is true, as The Brooklyn Eagle says, that "it is probable the President could force his own renomination. Nothing could save that from being recognized as a forced process. It would be stigmatized as a violation of his freely and solemnly pledged word."

Four hundred years ago there lived in France one Bernard Palissy, famous in history as the "Potter of the Tuilleries," who, in addition to the manufacture of excellent pottery, was a noted philosopher and writer. Many of his writings deal with the woods and forests, and in one of his books he sagely observes: "For when the forests shall be cut all arts shall cease, and they who practice them shall be driven out to eat grass with Nebuchadnezzar and the beasts of the field. I have divers times thought to set down in writing the arts that shall perish when there shall be no more wood, but when I had written down a great number, I did preceive that there could be no end of my writing, and having diligently considered, I found there was not any which could be followed without wood." The same is true today.

If some of those two by four alleged newspapers who are making nasty and cowardly remarks about Congressman Frank Clark could be present at the reception tendered that gentleman wherever he speaks throughout the district, they would change their minds as to his standing among his constituents. Hon. Frank Clark is a strong man today in Florida's political life because he is a sincere friend to all classes in all communities.—St. Augustine Record.

LET HIM EMIGRATE.

It probably will be a wholesome lesson for a number of Northern philanthropists engaged in elevating the colored race at long range to read the speech of Bishop Turner of the African Methodist Episcopal church, made in New York last week. Among a number of other things he said was the remark that he had no use for America, despised the American flag, and wished that all the negroes would emigrate from a country where they were so ill used as in the United States. It seems that such a remark comes very near branding as an undesirable citizen a man who never ought to have been made a citizen in the first place. The last section of his remark, however, is one with which most people in the United States can heartily agree. If Bishop Turner can only find some country that will accept him and his fellows of like sentiment as residents, the rest of the country will watch without a single regret the spectacle of the Bishop as an ebon Moses leading his following into the new Canaan. The only real regret is that while he will continue to rant and orate, he will never carry out his threat to emigrate. Such views as he has voiced are the worst possible training for the other members of his race to hear. And they do not offer much encouragement to the white population to continue staggering along with the "White Man's Burden."

A proposal is being advanced now by a number of well meaning gentlemen, members of the Society des Beaux Arts, for a new member of the cabinet, a Secretary of Fine Arts. At the present rate of suggestion the cabinet would eventually become larger than the Senate. The doctors of the country have been for several years pressing for the creation of a Federal Health Department with a secretary at its head. There are others who hold that the Commissioner of Education should be made a cabinet officer, and doubtless there are other professions that would like to have cabinet representations. But as it seems hardly practicable for all to have departments of their own, the chances are that none will have them.

THE NEWS FROM MICANOPY.

Micanopy, July 10.—The home of Mrs. Sue D. Feaster was the scene of a merry social gathering Thursday evening, July 4th, when she entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Lucile Moore of Ocala. The beautiful home was handsomely decorated with palms and the national colors, the parlor especially being a tasteful arrangement of red, white and blue in the form of candles, flags and tissue paper.

The reception hall was decorated in palms and flags, while the patriotic colors suitable to the day were also conspicuous in the dining-room.

Those in the receiving line were Mrs. Sue D. Feaster, Miss Lucile Moore of Ocala, Miss Lola Maude Smith, Mrs. L. M. Moore of Ocala and Mrs. John Hester.

The guests were ushered to the dining-room by little Sue Feaster Moore of Ocala, where delicious punch was served by Miss Belle Chitty and Mr. Eugene Rivers.

Souvenirs in the form of tiny flags were presented to each guest by Mrs. John Hester.

Choice music was rendered during the evening by the Misses Lucile Moore, Ruble Thrasher, Ella Johnson, LeVerne Bobbitt, Virginia Allen and Lillian Bauknight. A guessing contest was one of the pleasant features of the evening, the prize being captured by Miss Maude Smith, while Mr. Tom Carleton was the recipient of the booby prize.

Delicious refreshments in the form of ice cream and cake were served bountifully, after which the game of "pulling the cobwebs from the room" was played, furnishing much amusement for all.

The young people present were the Misses Lucile Moore of Ocala, Virginia Allen of McIntosh, Lucy Crawley of Social Circle, Ga., Belle Chitty, Mable Thrasher, Rubie Thrasher, LaVerne Bobbitt, Ella Johnson, Lola Maude Smith, Lillian Bauknight, Dora May Chitty, Mrs. John Hester, Mrs. T. M. Moore of Ocala, Mrs. O. L. Feaster, and Messrs. Gus Bobbitt of Gainesville, Leon Thrasher, Vernon Chitty, Buist Chitty, Orion Feaster, Tom Carleton, Eugene Rivers, Oscar Mott, O. L. Feaster.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. S. G. Gay has been very sick but is now improving.

Miss Essie Smith has gone to Archer, where she has accepted a position with C. W. Bauknight.

Miss Edith Merry is on a visit to her parents from Atlanta, where she has been for about three years.

Miss Lola Maude Smith and Miss Sherrod of Tacoma were in town today.

We hear that W. S. Turner has bought an interest in the meat market here. It was formerly owned by W. L. Simonton.

W. R. Smith has moved to the Cloversettle house, now owned by Herbert H. Harrell. It will be remembered he bought this place from Mrs. Cloversettle a few months ago, and that Mrs. Cloversettle moved to Tampa. We understand that she has lost her household goods by fire since going there. We are sorry to hear of her misfortune.

A. T. Gunter has bought Waterman Johnson's interest in the livery stable.

Mrs. J. A. Edwards has returned home from a visit to her daughter in Tallahassee and other points.

For Over Sixty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea.

THE NEWS FROM REX.

Rex, July 10.—Mrs. J. L. Townsend returned to her home Sunday, after a pleasant visit with relatives in Plant City.

Mrs. J. J. Godwin and children, who have been on a visit to the former's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Blitch of Santa Fe, returned to their home Sunday.

Miss Kate Nasch and little sister, Louise, leave Thursday for a few months' visit with relatives in New York.

Messrs. Geo. Sherouse, H. M. Sanders and Miss Lotus Sanders were among those who attended the picnic at Melrose on the Fourth.

J. S. Teeter of Jacksonville spent part of last week at his home.

Clyde Sherouse and sister, Miss Beulah, spent the Fourth in Grove Park.

Quite a number of our people attended the picnic in Melrose on last Thursday. After a sumptuous spread the crowd repaired to the ball ground to witness a game between the Melrose and Rex teams. M. McMillian and Yearwood were the battery for Melrose, and E. H. and J. S. Teeter were the battery for Rex. Some exceptionally fine playing was done on both sides. The score stood 8 to 3 in favor of Rex.

Whereupon the board adjourned.

Your Liver

Is out of order. You go to bed in a bad humor and get up with a bad taste in your mouth. You want something to stimulate your liver. Just try Herbine, the liver regulator. A positive cure for constipation, dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. F——, Ft. Worth, Texas, writes: "We have used Herbine in my family for years. Words can't express what I think about it. Everybody in my household are happy and well, and we owe it to Herbine." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the highest commendation from leading medical men of all the different schools of practice, for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is recommended. A full list of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

LAKE VIEW ITEMS.

Lake View, July 10.—Miss Antha Groff of Newberry is here on a few days' visit to her friend, Miss Neal Johnson.

Mrs. J. T. Pendleton of High Springs and interesting little son, Joseph, are here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Paulling.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Johnson went to Hawthorn last Wednesday to visit the latter's sister, who was quite sick. Finding her much better they returned home Thursday.

Misses Neal Johnson and Antha Groff, accompanied by Lenton Johnson, spent last Sunday at Island Grove, guests of Mrs. Wm. Evans.

Lenton Johnson visited Newberry last Friday, returning home the following Tuesday. He was accompanied by his brother, Lucius, who will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Ernest L. Paulling, who has spent the past six months on the East Coast, is home on a visit to friends and relatives.

Quite a number of young folks enjoyed a picnic at "Garrison Hammock" last Saturday. The crowd was Misses Sallie Paulling, Neal Johnson, Julia Pendleton, and Antha Groff; Messrs. Lucius Johnson, Lenton Johnson, Ernest Paulling and Madison and Ernest Johnson. They reported a fine time.

"BOB" DISCREETLY SILENT.

Evans Declines to Comment on Admiral Sakamoto's Remarks.

New York, July 10.—Rear Admiral Evans, who is at the Brooklyn navy yard, has declined to comment on the remarks imputed to Admiral Sakamoto of the Japanese navy to the effect that American naval officers were dandies with no technical training and that the enlisted men had no patriotism and would desert in case of war.

Admiral Evans smiled when Sakamoto's remarks were shown him. He said it would be the height of impropriety for him to reply to a foreign officer, especially when he had no means of knowing if he really said the things attributed to him.

"We here in this country," he said, "don't talk."

BANK NOTICE.

NO. 28.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
STATE OF FLORIDA
Office of Comptroller, Tallahassee.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned it has been made to appear that a banking association under the name of The Dutton Bank, located at Gainesville, Florida, and organized under the laws of the State of Florida has complied with all the provisions required to be complied with by the banking laws of the State of Florida before an association shall be authorized to commence the business of banking.

Now, Therefore, I, A. C. Croom, Comptroller of the State of Florida, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 3702 of the General Statutes of the State of Florida, certify that The Dutton Bank of Gainesville, in the County of Alachua and the State of Florida, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the name above given with a capital stock of seventy-five thousand dollars.

Given under my hand and seal of office this ninth day of July, A. D. one thousand nine hundred seven.

[SEAL] A. C. CROOM,
7-11-4w Comptroller State of Florida.

FATHER OF GIRL FURIOUS.

Says He Will Have Grim Reckoning With Dr. Thomas.

New York, July 10.—Dr. Julian P. Thomas, famous aeronaut and autoist, who was so frightfully injured with his two female companions when his speeding machine dashed into a telegraph pole at 1 o'clock on Monday morning, is still in a very critical condition at Fordham hospital.

Miss Florence Haas, the pretty music teacher, whose limb was amputated above the knee, is believed to have been fatally injured internally, and Miss Alvina Weiseman of the Florodora chorus, lies moaning in her delirium from shocking wounds and bruises.

Mrs. Thomas, the wife of the mangled driver of the fatal car, called at the hospital Tuesday, but she made no mention of the women who were with her husband at the time of the accident and asked no questions. Her only expressed desire was to see her husband and render any service to him in her power.

The father of Miss Florence Haas arrived at Fordham hospital in a perfect fury. He swore instant death for Dr. Thomas, should the injured man recover from his injuries. He said:

"You all know what happened to Stanford White. Well, you wait until this man, Thomas, who takes innocent girls out automobiling at 1 o'clock in the morning and nearly kills them, gets out of the hospital. You'll see what will happen to him.

"You say this Dr. Thomas may get well?" went on Haas. "He may get well from the accident, but wait until I have seen him. How about my girl, with her leg taken off, in the hospital, and her name ruined?"

Death in Waldo.

Miss May Packham, about nineteen years of age, died at Waldo Tuesday afternoon, and was buried in the Waldo cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Friends of the bereaved family extend sincere sympathy.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

S.S.S. FORTY YEARS OF CURES

Long experience and thorough testing have proven S. S. S. to be King of blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics. For nearly a century S. S. S. has been used in the treatment of blood and skin diseases of every character, and so satisfactory have been the results that it is now the best known and most widely used blood medicine on the market. It attracted attention as soon as it was placed on the market by the way promptly those diseases for which it was recommended, and we have jealously guarded its first good reputation, by keeping it up to its high standard in manufacture, that it now has the unequalled and pleasing record of "Forty Years Of Cures." For Rheumatism, Catarrh, Blood Sores and Ulcers, Malaria, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and other diseases due to an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, there is nothing that equals S. S. S. It counteracts and removes the germ poisons, cleanses the system of all unhealthy matter, cures the trouble permanently, and restores strong, robust health. Where the blood is weak and anaemic and unable to nourish the system as it should, S. S. S. supplies it with the needed properties, and being a bracing, invigorating tonic it builds up the entire system. It goes to the very bottom of all blood disorders, and in this way reaches deep-seated and inherited cases on which the ordinary sarsaparillas and tonics have little or no effect. Not only is S. S. S. certain in its results, but it is an absolutely safe medicine. It has the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you are in need of a blood remedy begin the use of S. S. S., the medicine that has proven its worth by its record of forty years of cures. Book on the blood and any medical advice you wish free of charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION.

Notice is hereby given that we, the undersigned, intend to apply to the Governor of the State of Florida for Letters Patent to be issued to Maddox Foundry and Machine Company, a proposed corporation under the Laws of the State of Florida, of which company the following shall be the articles of incorporation.

This notice is given pursuant to the requirements of the State of Florida, and the Articles of incorporation have been filed with the Secretary of State, and are given below.

H. MADDOX,
C. C. VOYLE,
E. E. VOYLE.

Article 1.—The name of the corporation shall be Maddox Foundry and Machine Company, and its principal place of business shall be in Archer, Alachua county, Florida, and it may establish offices, works and agencies at other places within the State of Florida.

Article 2.—The general nature of the business or businesses to be engaged in and transacted by said company shall be the manufacturing, buying and selling of machinery and appliances; operate founderies, buying and selling all kinds of iron, brass, steel and other metals; act as agent or representative of any person or corporation in the purchase and sale of machinery and appliances; and this corporation shall have power generally to do, perform, have, hold, acquire and enjoy all other property, powers and things as shall be incident, necessary or expedient for the conducting the operation of the business, and generally be vested with and have all the powers granted, or which may be hereafter granted, to corporations under the Laws of the State of Florida.

Article 3.—The amount of the capital stock of said company shall be Twenty-five Thousand Dollars divided into two hundred and fifty shares, each of the par value of One Hundred Dollars, to be paid in as follows: Twelve thousand dollars in property at a just valuation to be fixed by the directors of said company at a meeting to be called for that purpose, five hundred dollars in cash, and the balance to remain in the treasury to be disposed of in such manner as the directors may determine.

Article 4.—The term for which this corporation is to exisit is ninety-nine years.

Article 5.—The business of this corporation shall be conducted by a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer and a board of three directors—the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person. The board of directors shall be elected by the stockholders at a meeting to be held on the first Monday in September 1907, and annually thereafter. The board of directors shall elect the officers of the company—the president and vice-president shall be elected from among the board of directors.

Until the first election, and until their successors shall be qualified, the following officers and directors shall conduct the business of the company: H. Maddox, president; C. C. Voyle, vice-president, and E. E. Voyle, secretary and treasurer, and H. Maddox, C. C. Voyle and E. E. Voyle shall constitute the first board of directors.

Article 6.—The highest indebtedness or liability which this corporation can at any time subject itself is Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars.

Article 7.—The names and residences of the incorporators of said corporation and the subscribers for the stock thereof with the number of shares subscribed for by each are as follows:

H. Maddox, Archer, Florida, 110 shares.

C. C. Voyle, Gainesville, Florida, 10 shares.

E. E. Voyle, Gainesville, Florida, 5 shares.

State of Florida.)
Alachua County.)

Personally on this 18th day of June, A. D. 1907, before me, A. E. Voyle, a notary public in and for said county and State, appeared H. Maddox, C. C. Voyle and E. E. Voyle, to me well known and known to me to be the persons who subscribed the foregoing, and severally acknowledged before me that they subscribed the same.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto to set my hand at Gainesville, Florida, the day and year above written.

(Seal.) A. E. VOYLE,

Coca-Cola

Proves Big Help For Tired Housewives

There is bound to come a time through a mother's endless day when over-worked energies refuse to continue the heavy strain. A cold bottle of Coca-Cola solves this important problem. It clears the throat of flying dust, invigorates and sustains the strength. Bottled Coca-Cola is made right, sold right, IS RIGHT. Sterilized bottles, filled by antiseptic machinery, mean the proportions are always correct. Look for Crown Lid.

WIND STORM AT PALMER.

Reported That a Great Deal of Damage Was Done to Fences and Farms.

A terrific windstorm visited the Palmer section Wednesday, and it is reported that a great deal of damage was done in the matter of fences and farms. A number of trees were also blown down, in many places blocking the roads.

No definite information was secured, but it is said that the damage was heavy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jernigan have returned from Live Oak, where they have been on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Wind. Mr. Jernigan is deeply impressed with the rapid commercial advancement of Live Oak, which he declares is "growing by leaps and bounds."

Albert N. Eddins, whose home is in this city but who is employed in New York, after a brief but pleasant visit here left for New York Tuesday. He was accompanied by his brother, Ruby Eddins, who has been indisposed for several weeks, and it is hoped that the change will have a tendency to build him up.

H. M. Chitty and sister, Miss Belle, left yesterday for Jacksonville. In that city they were joined by A. B. Chitty, and the trio proceeded to Denmark, S. C. In a few days the gentlemen expect to start on a trip through the West, after which they will visit New York and purchase their fall stock. They will be absent several weeks.

Attorney J. A. Williams of Cedar Key was in the city yesterday. Mr. Williams states that the tarpon are running "a million strong" at the mouth of Suwannee river now, and those who have the ambition can catch them without trouble. Fred Cubberly, who was present, made fun of him, but he declared that the tarpon were there, and that he proposed to demonstrate their presence by a good catch in a few days.

N. P. Cauthen of Waldo, member of the firm of Cauthen & Son, manufacturers of shingles, was in the city on business yesterday. Mr. Cauthen states that he has been compelled to shut down his mill on account of the congested condition of his yard, the Seaboard Air Line having failed to move his products for several weeks, although there is a steady demand. He has found it impossible to move anything for some time, which is of great detriment to him, financially and otherwise.

Attention is called to the big display advertisement of The G. W. Hyde Company, which appears elsewhere in this issue. This firm offers a great mid-summer sale, beginning Friday, July 12, at which everything in their line will be sacrificed at prices which will be surprising. Read the ad. of this great firm, which is one of the largest and most successful in the State, and if you really want a trade go and make your purchase, for there will be no excuse for not laying in a supply at this sale.

THE NEWS FROM MICANOPY.

Micanopy, July 10.—The home of Mrs. Sue D. Feaster was the scene of a merry social gathering Thursday evening, July 4th, when she entertained in honor of her niece, Miss Lucile Moore of Ocala. The beautiful home was handsomely decorated with palms and the national colors, the parlor especially being a tasteful arrangement of red, white and blue in the form of candles, flags and tissue paper.

The reception hall was decorated in palms and flags, while the patriotic colors suitable to the day were also conspicuous in the dining-room.

Those in the receiving line were Mrs. Sue D. Feaster, Miss Lucile Moore of Ocala, Miss Lola Maude Smith, Mrs. L. M. Moore of Ocala and Mrs. John Hester.

The guests were ushered to the dining-room by little Sue Feaster Moore of Ocala, where delicious punch was served by Miss Belle Chitty and Mr. Eugene Rivers.

Souvenirs in the form of tiny flags were presented to each guest by Mrs. John Hester.

Choice music was rendered during the evening by the Misses Lucile Moore, Rubie Thrasher, Ella Johnson, LeVerne Bobbitt, Virginia Allen and Lillian Bauknight. A guessing contest was one of the pleasant features of the evening, the prize being captured by Miss Maude Smith, while Mr. Tom Carleton was the recipient of the booby prize.

Delicious refreshments in the form of ice cream and cake were served bountifully, after which the game of "pulling the cobwebs from the room" was played, furnishing much amusement for all.

The young people present were the Misses Lucile Moore of Ocala, Virginia Allen of McIntosh, Lucy Crawley of Social Circle, Ga., Belle Chitty, Mable Thrasher, Rubie Thrasher, LaVerne Bobbitt, Ella Johnson, Lola Maude Smith, Lillian Bauknight, Dora May Chitty, Mrs. John Hester, Mrs. T. M. Moore of Ocala, Mrs. O. L. Feaster, and Messrs. Gus Bobbitt of Gainesville, Leon Thrasher, Vernon Chitty, Buist Chitty, Orion Feaster, Tom Carleton, Eugene Rivers, Oscar Mott, O. L. Feaster.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. S. G. Gay has been very sick but is now improving.

Miss Essie Smith has gone to Archer, where she has accepted a position with C. W. Bauknight.

Miss Edith Merry is on a visit to her parents from Atlanta, where she has been for about three years.

Miss Lola Maude Smith and Miss Sherrod of Tacoma were in town today.

We hear that W. S. Turner has bought an interest in the meat market here. It was formerly owned by W. L. Simonton.

W. R. Smith has moved to the Cloversettle house, now owned by Herbert H. Harrell. It will be remembered he bought this place from Mrs. Cloversettle a few months ago, and that Mrs. Cloversettle moved to Tampa. We understand that she has lost her household goods by fire since going there. We are sorry to hear of her misfortune.

A. T. Gunter has bought Waterman Johnson's interest in the livery stable.

Mrs. J. A. Edwards has returned home from a visit to her daughter in Tallahassee and other points.

MASONS TO HIGH SPRINGS.

Officers of Gainesville Lodge Conferred Work There.

W. B. Higdon, D. D. G. M., D. M. Tomkies and R. T. Schafer returned yesterday from High Springs, where on Tuesday evening they conferred the degrees of F. C. and M. M. on Chas. Glass.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies a banquet was tendered, at which there was a large number present, and which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Benis McRae of Evinston is the guest of Mrs. A. A. McRae. Her many friends here are pleased to meet her again.

Harry Huffman has returned from a pleasant month's visit with relatives at Live Oak.

A. J. McGregor and family have returned from Buena Vista, where they have been residing for the past year or more.

During the heavy storm Sunday afternoon the home of Ed Noble near town was struck by lightning and quite a good deal of damage done to the roof and weatherboarding.

LAKE VIEW ITEMS.

Mrs. J. T. Pendleton of High Springs and interesting little son, Joseph, are here on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Paulling.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Johnson went to Hawthorn last Wednesday to visit the latter's sister, who was quite sick. Finding her much better they returned home Thursday.

Lenton Johnson visited Newberry last Friday, returning home the following Tuesday. He was accompanied by his brother, Lucius, who will spend a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Ernest L. Paulling, who has spent the past six months on the East Coast, is home on a visit to friends and relatives.

Quite a number of young folks enjoyed a picnic at "Garrison Hammock" last Saturday. The crowd was Misses Sallie Paulling, Neal Johnson, Julia Pendleton, and Antha Groff; Messrs. Lucius Johnson, Lenton Johnson, Ernest Paulling and Madison and Ernest Johnson. They reported a fine time.

A SPECIAL TERM TO TRY LOWMANS

Murderers of Dunlap Phinney to Have Speedy Trial.

INDIGNATION IS VERY HIGH

This Feeling Subsided for a While, But Public Sentiment Soon Renewed the Fire of Passion and Vengeance, and Special Term is Called.

Information has reached this city to the effect that Judge J. T. Wills has ordered a special term of the Circuit Court of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, in and for Levy county, for the purpose of trying the case of the State of Florida vs. Ransom Lowman and George Lowman, charged with the murder of Dunlap Phinney, which occurred at Raleigh a few weeks ago.

At the time of the murder, and since, feeling has been very high in Levy county, and on the Sunday afternoon of Mr. Phinney's funeral at Morriston, which was attended by five hundred people, a mass meeting was held, as the Lowman's had not yet been placed under arrest. However, one of the men was arrested late Sunday afternoon and the other on Monday. They were taken to the jail at Bronson and given a preliminary hearing before County Judge Friedman, at which a large number of people were gathered. It is said that violence was threatened, but the crowd was consoled by the fact that both men were remanded to jail without bail.

Agitation was again brought up, and the feeling has run so high that Judge Wills, upon the application of county officials and citizens, has decided to call this special term, which will convene in Bronson on Monday, 29th inst.

It will be remembered that bad blood existed between the Lowmans and Phinney for some time, and the two Lowmans now in prison, it is alleged, deliberately shot to death Dunlap Phinney at Raleigh a few weeks ago.

FURLOUGH EXTENDED.

Chas. Glass of the U. S. Navy Will Receive Thirty Days More.

Chas. Glass of High Springs, son of Postmaster George Glass of that town, who has been on a sick leave and furlough for thirty days, and who was to have reported at his post of duty as hospital steward of the Navy in a few days, has been granted an extension of thirty days, which will be gratifying information to his parents and numerous friends. The news came from headquarters Tuesday.

Young Glass is a very popular attache of the Navy, as well as popular with friends at home. He was off on sick leave, and has not yet fully recovered, but his furlough having about expired, he was making preparations to return to his post in China when the glad tidings came.

New Jacksonville Business.

J. B. Douglass and C. C. Hudson, both of whom were former residents of Gainesville, Mr. Douglass being in the mercantile business here for many years, have formed a partnership in Jacksonville and embarked in the grocery business, having a large and well-appointed store on Main street.

Mr. Douglass' family will continue to reside here, as he owns a nice home in East Gainesville. Mr. Hudson formerly resided here, but as he holds a lucrative position on the road as a traveling salesman, and his headquarters being so much more convenient, his family will reside there. Both are popular here, however, and friends wish them much success in their new venture.

Death in Waldo.

Miss May Peckham, about nineteen years of age, died at Waldo Tuesday afternoon, and was buried in the Waldo cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Friends of the bereaved family extend sincere sympathy.

TAX RETURNS SHOW ENORMOUS INCREASE

In Valuations in Alachua County. In All Lines of Business.

NEARLY SIX MILLION DOLLARS

Is the Valuation of Property Turned In by Tax Assessor Colson, Which Will be Materially Increased by the Assessment of Railroad Property.

County Tax Assessor W. W. Colson has completed his returns for the year 1907, which makes the largest and most important showing ever known in Alachua county.

This tax return shows property valuations to be in the neighborhood of $5,750,000, or, in plain words, five and three-quarter millions of dollars, which is enormous, being an increase of a half-million over the assessment roll of last year.

This assessment roll will be increased considerable, as the railroad returns are not yet in.

The following will show the recapitulation of the figures which have already been received.

Real estate, $2,468,290; personal $1,278,070.

The estimated value of the railroad assessments is about $1,648,700, a little in advance of preceding years, owing to increase of mileage in railroad construction in the county within the past year.

This condition of affairs is certainly gratifying to the people of the county, as it shows that commercially and in every other way our people are growing and expanding as they have never grown before. This healthy increase is due alike in proportion to the phosphate and lumber and naval stores interests, the increase in the farming industry, in mercantile and manufacturing, and consequently resulting in the upbuilding and advancement of every town in the county.

No county in Florida can show a more decided increase in all lines than Alachua, and we are to be congratulated in this direction.

MADE A FINE PURCHASE.

T. R. Pickett Will Engage in Mill Business in Suwannee County.

T. R. Pickett of Newberry was among those who spent Monday in Gainesville.

Mr. Pickett has for several years been engaged in the manufacture of lumber near Half Moon, in the West End, and has been quite successful. He has about worked out the forests of that section, however, with the result that he has closed down this mill, and has made a purchase from the Suwannee Lumber Company of a valuable tract of timber land, comprising 6,000 acres, together with an up-to-date sawmill plant, in Suwannee county, six miles to the westward of Live Oak, and will at once assume charge of the premises.

Mr. Pickett is a thorough mill man, and will make a fine success of his new purchase.

Help! Help! I'm Falling!

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

"STEPS TOWARD A ZENITH."

Contribution Referring to a Little of Everything.

Editor Sun:

As the shadows of retrospection [illegible] back over the few years of my life and reflect the past that is gotten, when at last I find myself wondering why I should be so proud of the dear old fertile lands in and around Gainesville, the future empire town of Florida.

The Fourth of July five years ago found Gainesville almost destitute of any amiable zenith that we could see, but now look at her as she stands pre-eminent before you in her colossal glory, the wonder of the South!

As a student of the old E. F. S. I learned to admire the respectability of every true citizen in Gainesville. In every machine shop, behind every counter and in every school room could be found "policy"—that policy which has built and purified the town.

Our county has conquered all the saloons and in the course of time, if her diligent officers continue their gallant work, there will be no "blind tigers" in our midst, but as two-eyed tigers they will be caged, as it is the best place for such animals. Our women are our greatest Christian aid and if we men do not get a move on us they will have to be given the privilege of voting and using the big stick. The rich men of today do not take under consideration half of that which is moral, just or good. Then why should we, the poorer class, allow the very foundation of prosperity to be built by us any longer? It is because these men who are rich, yet poor, have within their own hands the reins which sooner or later will turn us into slaves more than we are if we continue to sell out so cheap to them.

He that liveth in a log hut and hath his soul clean, though he may live on husks and sleep on a pallet of rags, yet is he a millionaire to be envied above the rich man who coins his gold from the life's blood of his fellows.

The future of Gainesville lies in the hands of the poorer class, and not in the hands of John D. or any other millionaire.

The University of Florida and the Normal have done more for Gainesville and Alachua county than any other present advantage.

Gainesville is the morning star of reformation in her county, and a coming metropolis of Florida, and with all her advantages, and so few disadvantages, can she not put forth one candidate for Governor for our "Land of Flowers?"

The man of whom so many of us in the West End are thinking is a man worthy of any honor which the citizens of Florida can bestow. Especially should Gainesville work for him, for he has labored so long and earnestly for them and their schools. When the old E. F. S. cried for aid in her feeble age, she was overheard by Hon. Frank Clark, who worked, as everyone knows, as long as he could to secure appropriations for her.

THIEF STOLE MONEY DRAWER AND ALL

Not Content With Money, Also Took Cash Drawer.

TUCKER & ROLAND'S LOSS

While Store at Newberry Was Crowded Saturday Night Clever Thief Relieved Firm of Money Drawer Containing Receipts of Entire Day.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun.

[illegible] might [illegible] in the [illegible] Newberry [illegible] & Roland [illegible] in the West End was [illegible] the cash [illegible] the safe [illegible] it right [illegible] of customers [illegible] in the store [illegible] to fill his [illegible] silver and checks. The latter will prove of little benefit to him, however, but it is understood that the amount of actual money made by the "haul" is a profitable one.

Sheriff Fennell was notified of the "haul" by Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Livingston, but inasmuch as there was no clue, no action has been taken by the sheriff, who has left the matter to the officials at Newberry.

This was quite a loss to Tucker & Roland, and will have a tendency to make them watch the cash drawer more closely in future.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun.

The correspondent of The Metropolis, or at least the informant, was mistaken in stating that the safe of Tucker & Roland was blown open in Newberry Saturday night. While The Metropolis man was sincere in what he said, the safe was not blown, but the robbery occurred from a cash drawer in the safe, when the safe was open.

The Sun also made a slight error in reporting the robbery, stating that the regular counter cash drawer was robbed.

Mr. Tucker, of the firm of Tucker & Roland, was in communication with The Sun by telephone Tuesday. He states that the robbery occurred on Saturday night, and that the drawer taken was from the safe, but the safe was open.

The financial loss of Tucker & Roland was not as large as at first rumored. There was a large number of checks and drafts in the drawer, aggregating a considerable amount, but only $135 in cash.

No clue has yet been secured, hence the officers are on what might be termed a "wild goose" chase.

The robbery occurred while the store was open and was full of customers. This makes the robbery all the more mysterious, but it is hoped to sift the mystery down in a short while.

As a matter of course the paper is not negotiable without the proper endorsements, and if any attempt is made to negotiate same the robbers will be apprehended.

ITCHING TORTURE OF LITTLE BABY

Head and Face Covered With Awful Itching Sores and Scabs—Would Scratch Until Blood Came—Mother in Despair for Treatment Did No Good—Dread Disease

YIELDED TO CUTICURA ALMOST IMMEDIATELY

"I was in despair about my baby. When he was about two months old his face and head were full of scabs and very itching sores with terrible running matter. I had to tie his little hands in bags for he used to make his face and head bleed. I had two or three doctors but they did not do any good. I was told to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and I can say that they stopped the running matter immediately and soon after I had washed him twice he looked almost well, but I used about three cakes of Cuticura Soap and four or five boxes of Cuticura Ointment, continuing the treatment for two or three months. I also used Cuticura Remedies for my other children and took Cuticura Resolvent myself to purify my milk for my baby whom I nursed while he suffered with that terrible itching and sores he had. Now I always have Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the house handy. I shall be glad if you want to publish this letter so that other sufferers will come to know what good the Cuticura Remedies can do. GAINESVILLE FURNITURE CO.

Annual Meeting of Stockholders Monday, Which Proved Interesting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Gainesville Furniture Company was held Monday afternoon, at which a great deal of business of importance was taken up, principal among which was the selling of $10,000 worth of stock to L. J. Clyatt. The stock was sold to Mr. Clyatt, and the sale was ratified Tuesday by the firm, which gives Mr. Clyatt a good slice of stock of the company.

The election of officers having been called, W. R. Thomas was re-elected president, L. J. Clyatt vice-president, and J. K. Abrams secretary and treasurer and general manager.

The report of the business for the year just ending was very satisfactory, which inspires the stockholders to better things for the year coming.

The Temperance Meeting.

The union meeting of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist churches, held at the court house Sunday evening, was well attended, and those present enjoyed the meeting very much, being deeply impressed with the proceedings.

The meeting was in the nature of a temperance rally, being held under the auspices of the National Anti-Saloon League. The speaker was Dr. G. W. Young of Kentucky, superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, who delivered a stirring sermon on temperance—or at least, intemperance and its evils. Rev. W. R. Lambert of Jacksonville, State superintendent of the league, was also present.

At the conclusion of the sermon nearly $300 was raised by subscription for the support of the league, which the speaker declared was doing a good and effective work.

Your Liver

MONDAY'S STORM WAS VERY SEVERE

One Man Reported Partially Paralyzed from Lightning.

LADY'S HOUSE WAS STRUCK

Lightning Entered a Chimney to Her Home, Spread Through the Rooms Down Stairs, and Slightly Disarranged Everything.

A terrific thunderstorm, accompanied by the usual lightning, passed over this city at a late hour Monday afternoon, considerable inconveniencing the public, and causing considerable trouble in some quarters, the most serious being the injury to William Irving, a colored man employed on the road gang a short distance east of the city, who was painfully if not seriously injured, the stroke having partially paralyzed the right side.

Irving, with other men, was at work on the Rochelle road when the thunderstorm came up. The storm was accompanied by heavy rain, and the men took shelter under trees. While Irving was standing under a heavy pine the lightning struck the tree, running down and affecting the man in the shoulder. He was at once rendered unconscious, and was brought to this city, where he received medical attention, and is now resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

There was also a lively scene in East Gainesville. The home of Mrs. Helen T. Chesnut, East Magnolia street, was struck, the bolt going down a chimney. The fire followed the course of the chimney, burning carpets and rugs in several rooms, the bolt having been directed by the draught from open doors. The chimney was practically wrecked, and the interior of the home was somewhat damaged. It was fortunate that no one was in the room at that time.

These were the only calamities reported, but the storm was severe, and it would not be surprising if other damages would be reported later.

"UNCLE JOHN" TREATED.

Clever Chairman of County Commissioners Set 'Em Up to Colleagues.

John G. Dampier, more familiarly known among his friends and associates as "Uncle John," the efficient and popular chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, opened up his heart in a most charitable manner Monday, bringing from his farm, which is one of the finest in the Hague section, an enormous watermelon, which he cut and divided among his fellow workers early in the afternoon.

Noting that the work of equalizing the tax rolls was progressing slowly, and that two or three of his colleagues were waning, Uncle John suddenly interrupted the proceedings.

"Look here," he interposed, "you fellows look like all the energy you ever had was gone. What's the matter with you? Why don't you straighten up and get through this job, which I must admit is a tedious one?"

"You bet it's tedious," replied Commissioner Pedrick, who had stretched almost at length in the comfortable chair he was occupying.

"It's a hard proposition to me," chimed in Commissioner Pauling, who showed the "wear" of a long trip from home, indicating also that he had arisen very early in the morning.

"Well, I've got something here to enliven you fellows," finally answered the chairman, and with that he produced the big melon from under Clerk Wienges' counter—and never such a feast as you ever heard of.

The melon was one of the finest a knife ever entered, and the commissioners after a few minutes returned to their duties full of melon and ambition, for the former of which they are indebted to "Uncle John."

Students Kill Provincial Governor.

HanKow, China, July 9—The governor of the province of Nganhwei was murdered Sunday by a student. Accompanied by the director of police, the governor was about to enter a school, at the capital of the province of Nganhwei, when several shots were fired at the governor, three bullets inflicting mortal injuries. The director of police seized the assassin and decapitated him on the spot. No further disturbances have occurred so far.

TIRED AND SICK YET MUST WORK

MRS. AUG. LYON

"Man may work from sun to sun but woman's work is never done."

In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo and often suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, comes as a blessing. When the spirits are depressed, the head and back aches, there are dragging-down pains, nervousness, dizziness, and reluctance to go anywhere, these are only symptoms which seldom heeded, are soon followed by the worst forms of Female Complaints.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

keeps the feminine organism in a strong and healthy condition. Inflammation, Ulceration, displacements, and organic troubles. In preparing for child-birth and to carry women safely through the Change of Life it is most efficient.

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"For a long time I suffered from female troubles and awful aches and pains in the lower part of back and side. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and following the advice which you gave me I feel like a new woman and I cannot praise your medicine too highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of experience she probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

It is said that T. A. Jennings of Pensacola, probable candidate for Governor, will run upon the platform of a "square deal" to everybody. That's what the people want.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Orange county has recommended Col. J. P. Warlow to the Governor for appointment as county solicitor, vice Judge J. F. Welborn, deceased.

Correspondents are requested to take special pains in preparing copy for The Sun. Bad copy greatly delays the linotype operator, and if you have a typewriter we would thank you to use it.

The Jacksonville fans have agreed to present Mullaney, manager of the local baseball team, with a purse of $2,000 if the Jacksonville team wins the South Atlantic penant. The purse is well worth trying for.

The Lake Butler Star says "Billy Copton, near Starke, made $400 on less than an acre of ground growing strawberries." And then adds: "If he had planted a hundred acres at this rate he would have had enough money to announce for Governor."

In 1856 the Democratic platform declared that the separation of the Government from banking institutions is indispensable for the safety of the funds of the Government and the rights of the people. Isn't that proposition as true today as it was fifty-one years ago?

John D. Rockefeller says that the beginning of his fortune came on that day when, as a boy hoeing corn at fifty cents a day, he made the discovery that $50 put out at 7 per cent a year would have an interest return equal to the amount of money he could earn in seven days at the rate of wages he was then receiving.

The following is from The Henry (Illinois) Republican of July 4th: "Cigarettes will not be sold anywhere in Illinois hereafter, and no person under 18 years of age will be allowed to smoke cigarettes, under a penalty of a fine of $10 for every offence. The new State law is drastic and covers every phase of the case, classing tobacco as a substance deleterious to health."

Northern contemporaries who are prone to harp upon the alleged political injustice practiced upon the negro in the South will please take notice that in the Georgia Legislature a contested election case has been decided in favor of the negro contestee and against the white contestant. The negro might have been ousted on a technicality, but the Georgia Legislature stands by the square deal.

It is estimated that there will be two thousand new applications for pensions filed by the first of August. This number alone means an increased payment of stipends of $140,000 per year by the State, and by January 1st, 1908, it is estimated that the number will be increased to at least 4,000, making the increased payments under the new law $250,000 annually, or a grand total per annum of $573,969.15 including pensioners on the roll when the new lay was enacted.

EX-GOV. FLEMING ON PENSIONS.

In The Times-Union of July 7th Hon. Francis P. Fleming, former Governor of Florida, and one of the most highly honored and beloved Confederate veterans in the State, has the following to say regarding the new pension law:

I presume no one will question my loyalty to the interests of the Confederate veteran. I devote no inconsiderable part of my time to promoting the welfare of those who have found a refuge in the Confederate Home in this city. It is because I hold so sacred the honor of those survivors of the "lost cause" that I am impelled to comment upon the pension law enacted by the Legislature which has just adjourned.

The first Confederate pension act of the State of Florida was passed in 1885, providing a pension of $5 a month and was limited to those unfit to perform manual labor by reason of wounds received in line of duty and to whom such pension was necessary for support. This act was amended, or new acts passed from time to time, somewhat increasing the amount and enlarging the class, finally extending to all those disabled from any cause—but there was always a property or income qualification. In other words, it was the wisdom of all Legislatures, acting on the pension law, except the last, to provide aid only to those who, by reason of physical disability and indigency, stood in need of it. The last Legislature makes no such limitation, but provides, besides those suffering from disability, that all who are sixty years of age shall be entitled to a pension. The war ended forty-two years ago, so that a person who was eighteen years of age at that time is now sixty years of age; it will, therefore, readily appear that the sixty-year provision will take in nearly all the Confederate veterans in the State, and in four years will take in practically all.

"The act also provides for the levy of a State tax of four mills, which under the present assessment, with due allowance for the usual insolvent list, will yield a sum of $500,000 per annum, an amount more than sufficient a few years ago to have run the whole State Government. The levy, of course, bears upon the poor widow and other persons of small means, as well as the wealthy. By what process of reasoning the Legislature came to the conclusion that it was proper to tax the people of the State to pay pensions to Confederate soldiers, without regard to their property, income or ability to earn a living, is difficult to understand. God has blessed me with the means of earning a support for myself and family, and I know of numbers of Confederate veterans who are wealthy and many others who make good livings. Why, I ask in all reason, should the taxpayers of the State be required to pay a four-mill tax to enable me, as well as others who do not need it for support, to put my hand in the public crib and draw out $100 a year, on the sole ground that I served in the Confederate army, performing nothing more than my duty? It may be answered that I need not apply for a pension. That is true, but the Legislature, which gives me the legal right to the pension, can take no credit if I do not avail myself of it. Undoubtedly many who do not need it will avail themselves of the law.

"I do not disfavor a pension to the veteran who is indigent and whose physical condition is such as to prevent him from earning a living, but giving the Legislature credit for the best intentions, in my opinion this pension law is wrong and tends to bring Confederate veterans into disfavor and to lower him from the high standard which he should occupy. Let us hope the next Legislature will correct this evil and eliminate from the pension rolls all those who do not need such State aid."

A number of the members of the Legislature, during consideration of the pension bill, gave vent to the same expressions as those voiced by Governor Fleming, but they were in such a great minority that they were unable to amend the bill in any particular. They favored liberal pensions to the old soldiers and their widows who need assistance, but were opposed to a "service" pension for granting which to Federal soldiers the South has complained against the North ever since the war ended. But those in charge of the bill refused to permit any change to be made in its provisions, contending that only those veterans who were in actual need would take advantage of it. How far they were wrong has already been demonstrated many well-to-do old veterans contending that as they are taxed to pay the increased pensions they are justly entitled to have their share of the fund.

HOW DO YOU FIGURE IT?

With three candidates for the Senate, one each for Congressman in two districts and four from another three for Governor, two each for Comptroller, Commissioner of Agriculture and Supreme court justice, four for railroad commissioner and two each for Secretary of State, attorney-general, treasurer, superintendent of public instruction, Supreme court clerk and adjutant-general [illegible] assured [illegible] fees with which to [illegible] pensions.—Tampa Journal.

Kindly [illegible] above [illegible] The Sun Committee [illegible] assess candidates five per cent of one year's salary and we fail to see how the above list would put more than $1,500 into the treasury of the committee.

"Hon. Frank Adams," says The Times-Union, "who is spoken of as a candidate for Senator, has set an example which some others might follow by resigning his position as State Senator from the Thirtieth district. He does not purpose to hold one position while running for another, we understand as the purpose of his resignation. With the consideration Mr. Adams has always shown for the body of voters who have kept him in the State Senate for thirteen years—on account of the high value of his service—he thus early sends in his resignation effective on the election of his successor at the regular November election next year. He has been twice president of the State Senate during those thirteen years, another tribute to his ability. This resignation sets an example which no other candidate for office can avoid following without injury to his standing among the people."

Judge Maxwell of the Criminal Court of Record, Jacksonville, who was recently appointed to succeed Judge Shaylor, is giving entire satisfaction to the bar of that city. "Jack" Maxwell, as he is familiarly known to his friends, read law in Gainesville under Col. W. W. Hampton, and his numerous friends here knew that he would "make good" as judge of the Duval court. His sentences so far have been tempered with mercy where he had reason to believe mercy was deserved, sentence being suspended in the case of several boys pending good behavior. The Sun believes that such action on the part of courts is calculated to do more towards reforming young men who have violated the law for the first time than all the reform schools in the country, and we congratulate Judge Maxwell upon his action in such cases.

The increase in the valuation of taxable property in Alachua county for the year 1907 of nearly half a million over the assessment of 1906, is indeed a good showing. The increase is not in farm lands, however, but is owing to improvements in towns throughout the county, the discovery of additional deposits of phosphate, and increased mileage of railroads, the latter amounting to nearly $100,000. There is little doubt but that the assessed valuation of property in the county for 1908 will reach the grand total of six million dollars, and it does seem that with this enormous increase of valuations during the past several years the tax-ridden people could be given some relief in the way of a reduction in the millage of both State and county taxes.

The cost of printing material, paper stock and labor continues to advance. Type we once bought for 48 cents per pound is now 62 cents; newspaper that sold for 3 cents per pound is now 5 and 6 cents; a printer now sells his labor for any old price he wants to ask, and it's hard to get them then; yet the subscription price of the majority of papers are the same, and in most instances a better paper is being printed than ever before. What are we to do? Raise the price of subscription and have the paper stopped, charge more for job work and have it sent out of town to printers who will do the foreign work cheap to get it? Looks kinder dubuis, doesn't it.—Dunnellon Advocate.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS EVENT.

[illegible] day marks an important event in the business history of Gainesville. Yesterday the old reliable banking business of H. F. Sutton & Co. ceased to exist and today its successor, The Sutton Bank, opens its doors for business.

The Sutton Bank starts out with the entire confidence of the people. It is distinctly an Alachua county institution, financed by Alachua county capital and officered by Alachua county people. The entire stock is held by our home people and among the stockholders are to be found a number of the soundest, safest business men in the county. The bank therefore begins its career intimately identified with the interests of the people of Alachua county and is destined to [illegible] a strong and safe institution in the building and development of new industries and commercial interests in this section. The directors are men well known for business ability and for their sound, safe and conservative methods. The new bank is strong financially and its management has the entire confidence of the business interests of this section of the State.

The Sun congratulates the people of this city and county and wishes for the new institution the prosperity it so abundantly deserves.

One lone negro showed up as a member of the Georgia Legislature when it met the other day, says The Live Oak Democrat, and his seat was contested by a white man. Nothing would have been easier than to unseat him on a technicality, but the legislative sense of justice was too strong and it appearing that the negro had really received a majority of the votes he was allowed to keep his seat. This is not the kind of politics we are supposed to play in the case of the negro, according to the Northern theory, and it's not the kind of politics a Republican Congress has been in the habit of playing in the case of a Southern Congressman when his seat was contested by a negro.

The city primary at Perry on July [illegible] was the most closely contested in the history of the town, 714 votes being polled out of a total qualified list of [illegible]. The dispensary advocates nominated their candidate for mayor and three of the four aldermen. It seems that the last Legislature enacted a special charter for Perry giving the city council authority to establish a dispensary no vote having ever been taken prohibiting the sale of liquor in Taylor county, and the dispensary people claim that they will have a majority of the council and give the system a thorough trial. Other Florida towns will await the result with interest.

The Sun deeply sympathizes with A. P. Jordan, editor of The Punta Gorda Herald, in the death of his beloved wife, which occurred on the 7th inst. after ten weeks' illness. Mrs. Jordan formerly was Miss Agnes V. Crenshaw and was born in Sumter county, Florida, December 22, 1865; married in 1883 to Adrian P. Jordan. Her entire life was spent in Florida, except two years at Thomasville, Ga. Besides her husband she leaves four sons and one daughter, the latter and three sons just grown. Mrs. Jordan was a devoted Christian woman, leader in social and club life of Punta Gorda, and will be greatly missed.

The officials responsible for felling the shade trees on East Main street, north, have not been any too severely censured by the public. This was the prettiest thoroughfare in the city, and it is a shame and disgrace that its beauty should have been marred in any such manner. It is to be hoped that the Board of Public Works will not again be guilty of such wanton destruction of the shade trees which it has required an average lifetime to grow to their present size. The shade trees on East Main street were worth more to the city than all the "grass plots" that could be set out in a century.

The Florida Railroad Commission is being commended for the excellent judgment shown in the selection of Mr. Frank Damon of Tallahassee as inspector of railroads and property, a position created by the last Legislature. Mr. Damon is a Tallahasseean by birth and has spent the greater part of his life in Florida. He has had ample experience in railroad construction work, having followed it continuously since 1880.

ISLE AS CYPRESS

A Verse From Solomon Told of a Marriage Engagement.

When she left her home in the country town to come to New York to take a special course of study her pet sister was just reaching the climax of a love affair. The pet sister was a winsome young lady and had many a goodly train of admirers at her feet. Was this affair to be the grand climax? The elder sister hoped so, for she thought the young man worthy—[illegible] was just the sort to make a good brother-in-law.

But the [illegible] of definite news about the affair did the [illegible] in her city home. [illegible] must not go on [illegible]

THINKING ALOUD.

A Ruse Which Roused Lord Dudley and Formed a Friendship.

One of the [illegible] of Dudley, who was addicted to the practice of thinking aloud, found himself in a very awkward [illegible] on a certain occasion. He [illegible] the evening at the [illegible] and ordered his carriage [illegible] had a long drive before [illegible]

While [illegible] the carriage was [illegible] seeing that Lord [illegible] fully annoyed [illegible] the guests, while [illegible] lost his temper [illegible] cursed him a [illegible] gentleman [illegible] Lord Dudley [illegible]

[illegible] very sociable [illegible] his seat [illegible] to silence, [illegible] roused by [illegible] heavily he began [illegible] distinctly [illegible] companion to [illegible] and him say:

"I'm very sorry I [illegible] his offer. I don't know [illegible] it was awful certainly, but the [illegible] I suppose I must ask [illegible]

Silence followed this [illegible] thinking. His [illegible] was [illegible] that he had been [illegible] and was probably still [illegible] upon the same unpleasant subject when the voice of his companion broke the stillness.

Apparently this stranger was afflicted with the same malady from which his lordship suffered, for he exactly imitated Lord Dudley's tone as he said:

"Perhaps he'll think I did it to make his acquaintance. Why, I would have done the same to any farmer on his estate. I hope he won't ask me to dinner, for I shan't accept his invitation."

Lord Dudley's abstraction was all gone. He listened to the other's words, immediately comprehending the joke against himself, and frankly offered his hand to his companion, making many apologies for his involuntary rudeness.

The stranger proved magnanimous, and from that night the two became fast friends.

THE TAXIDERMIST.

He Stretches Animal Skins Over Plaster of Paris Forms.

Recently a prominent taxidermist of St. Louis was taking a party of visitors through his establishment. He had some very rare specimens of big game fish, both of the sea and river, besides a large collection of birds of every clime about the walls.

"Is that stuffed, too?" asked a lady, indicating the lifelike form of a small pet dog which sat motionless upon the hearth.

The taxidermist frowned and returned very indignantly:

"Madam, we do no stuffing here. We stretch our hides over plaster of paris forms. The day of stuffing is past, and no up to date establishment does it."

The party was taken upstairs through the rooms where the real taxidermy is done. They had expected to see hides being crammed full of sawdust, shavings and perhaps hair. No such thing was seen, however, and in place of this were men and boys molding out the forms of deer, antelope, fish and other kinds of animals in the smooth white plaster. This is done very much in the same way as the terra cotta cornices are molded to grace the corners of buildings. The hides after going through the cleaning process are stretched tightly over the plaster form, which indeed is more lasting than the old fashioned manner of stuffing them.

"Even specimens of fish are treated in this manner," resumed the taxidermist, "and you may easily see how a skin would retain its shape a great deal longer over the hard, smooth surface of the plaster than if a softer material were crammed into it, which if improperly done will bulge and last but a short time."—Exchange.

Lincoln's Last Law Case.

Lincoln tried his last case in Chicago. It was the case of Jones versus Johnson in April and May, 1860, in the United States circuit court before Judge Drummond. The case involved the title to land of very great value, the accretion on the shore of Lake Michigan. During the trial Judge Drummond and all the counsel on both sides, including Lincoln, dined together at the house of Isaac N. Arnold.

At the conclusion of the dinner this toast was proposed: "May Illinois furnish the next president of the United States." It was drunk with great enthusiasm by the friends of both Lincoln and Douglas. — Chicago Record-Herald.

Fatalism Exemplified.

She—I hope, dear, that you are not going to worry about my exceeding my allowance this time.

He (brightening up)—You don't mean to tell me, dearest, that there isn't any necessity for it?

"Certainly not. What's the use of worrying about something you can't help?"—New York Life.

THE BLIND OF CAIRO.

To Be Found Everywhere in the City and on the Streets.

The first thing that impresses a stranger in Cairo is the number of blind—men, women and children—to be found everywhere in the shops and on the streets. Ophthalmia is very prevalent throughout Egypt. Because of superstition concerning the evil eye the native mothers of the middle and the lower class do not wash the eyes of their babies at all. Washing is then deemed unlucky and the burning unbearable. Flies swarm upon these blind children, and it requires a constant fight to keep them away. Many of the children are quite attractive with their expressive eyes, but their heads and palms look sore. Blind beggars are great in number at every corner, and in the high class districts there are many blind. The Egyptians are given to backsheesh—that is, the habit of giving alms—and in the large cities—and, although against the law to call it, one of the backsheesh places prominently before the man who smiles out of his sightless eyes everywhere. They are also attracted by the peculiar appearance of the eyes, which become red and watery underneath, and by the dark color of the skin, which also somewhat the color of a chocolate cruller.—Harold Quinby in Leslie's Weekly.

A LOST CONTRACT.

The Little Thing That May Make a Fortune a Year.

A pen once lost me a contract. I just worked up to the point where large concerns like to deal with me, and had my ordered down to my desk with my check book. He needed some printing, and I was ready to write out a check for the work. He turned over to his desk, to get the order, and I was ready with my check. The pen was dry, and I could not write. He would not give me another order

A QUAKER ROMANCE.

The Wooing of Katherine Hollingsworth by George Robinson.

Valentine Hollingsworth accompanied William Penn in the good ship Welcome and settled in Delaware upon the banks of the Brandywine. Katherine, his daughter, "a delectable Quaker maiden," the pride of the little settlement, was wooed and won by [illegible] George Robinson. But George was of the Church of England, and Katherine "must be married in meeting."

"George," writes the author of "Bric-a-brac Looms in Miniature," "was willing to join the society, be a Friend and be married in meeting or anywhere else that Katherine said. Accordingly he did, and Katherine made their first declaration fifth day, first month, 1685."

The elders, however, had "scruples" seeing that George's conversion was very sudden, and they asked him this searching question:

"Friend Robinson, dost thou join the Society of Friends from conviction or for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth?"

George hesitated. He prized the truth and he did wish to marry Katherine. So he answered:

"I wish to join the society for the love of Katherine Hollingsworth."

The Friends counseled "delay" and that Friend Robinson should be persuasively and instructively dealt with. Shrewd men as they were, they allowed Katherine to deal with him, and within a year George joined the society as a true convert.

An old manuscript reads, "He and Katherine were permitted to begin a long and happy married life together, being for many years an example of piety and goodness to those around them and retaining their love of truth and loyalty to the society to the last."

HE HIRED WEBSTER.

A Sharp Nantucket Man's Scrape With the Great Lawyer.

Of course Webster was in demand by those who could afford to pay for his services. A sharp Nantucket man is said to have got the better of the great defender of the constitution in an amusing way, however. He had a small case which was to be tried in Nantucket one week in June, and he posted to Webster's office in great haste. It was a contest with a neighbor over a matter of considerable interest, and his pride as a Nantucketer was at stake. He told Webster the particulars and asked what he would charge to conduct the case.

"Why," said Webster, "you can't afford to hire me. I should have to be down there the whole week, and my fee would be more than the whole case is worth. I couldn't go down there for less than $1,000. I could try your case on the docket as well as mine, it wouldn't cost any more, for mine would take my time for the whole week anyway."

"All right, Mr. Webster," quickly responded the Nantucketer. "Here's your $1,000. You come down, and fix it so you can try every case."

Webster was so amused over the proposition that he kept his word, spent the entire week in Nantucket and appeared on one side or the other in every case that came up for trial. The shrewd Nantucketer hired himself out to all his friends who were in litigation and received in return about $500, so that he got Webster's services for nothing and made a good profit to boot.

The Hygiene of Underwear.

The average person wearing two suits of underclothing a week, says the Youth's Companion, will make the change in the middle of the week. But it would be far better if the two suits were kept going the entire week on alternate days. With the biweekly change, the clothes worn during the day are aired only for seven or eight hours in the twenty-four and so do not have the purifying process of airing. With two sets going on alternate days, one set can be aired both nights and one day, and, if possible, should be hung up where they can receive the direct rays of the sun for some hours. They should not be shut up in a dark closet.

A Wonderful Cataract.

The falls of Iguazu, situated where Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil all meet, form one of the most wonderful cataracts in the world, being broader in extent and more varied in character than the better known falls of Niagara. The first plunge of the Iguazu falls is 210 feet, followed by two others of 100 feet each, while between the two series of falls there are many cataracts and rapids covering a vast expanse and surrounding picturesque islands.

The Left Wing.

"Is there any portion of the bird you prefer, major?" asked the host blandly.

"The left wing, if you please."

"The left wing?"

"Yes," retorted the major, glaring blackly at the platter. "I believe in always good military tactics to eat the left wing of a veteran corps in action."—London Tit-Bits.

WOOING SLEEP.

A Prescription That Worked Well in Philadelphia.

A haggard looking man strolled into a downtown drug store the other day and asked the druggist for help. He said he had trouble in getting to sleep when he retired. No matter how sleepy he might be during the day or how much sleep he might have lost, the moment his head touched the pillow he was wide awake and lay thus for several hours. Once asleep he was very hard to waken, but he had to be up at a certain hour, and in consequence of his peculiar affliction he was losing more sleep than he could stand. The drug clerk regarded him quizzically a few moments and then replied:

"My dear man, you don't want medicine. What you want is something to change the trend of your thoughts. Do as a friend of mine did. He was troubled the same way and found that the old folks' plan of imagining sheep passing a barrier and counting them was out of date, so he began trying to name all the states in the Union. He soon got them so he could classify them alphabetically. Then, when this no longer interested him, he started on the counties of his state. He now has them at his tongue's end, classified up to the fourth letter. Now he is counting on state captains and their home towns. Then he will take up county seats. A moment's glance at an atlas during the day shows him what he is wrong, and the beauty of the plan is that he rarely has to think along those lines longer than ten minutes before he is sound asleep. So much for the study of geography as a good sleep ootic."—Philadelphia Record.

A BOY HUNT.

The following extract from an interesting book may be of interest to our friends. It is "Those Days in the Country Angler," by William [illegible], published in London in 1878.

"About this time, while [illegible] the pleasures and profits [illegible] plagues to Whitehouse [illegible] boys, an adventure occurred [illegible] by starting in two [illegible] also to ten years old. We [illegible] engaged in picking wild [illegible] which abounded in the [illegible] when we saw at about a [illegible] yards distance a pack of [illegible] twenty wrens running [illegible] hedge and ordinary [illegible] stage. It dashed upon [illegible] being hunted, for [illegible] nearest hedge, we [illegible] field and, standing [illegible] bank, looked both [illegible] ents. To our dismay we [illegible] pack, with much [illegible] barking our coats. [illegible] given, then, rest and [illegible] proof across country [illegible] our position as sentinels [illegible] the pursuit was going [illegible] turns were evidently [illegible] so with a will down [illegible] village, which, happily [illegible] for all. I have [illegible] pursuing [illegible] persons being engaged [illegible] was never hunted by them as [illegible] or occasion."

The above must have appeared [illegible] 1878, the locality being the [illegible] England.—Forest and Stream.

Shooting the Shoshone.

His Quick Search.

A very little boy was in the [illegible] where a young lady was [illegible] the piano. She was [illegible] "One, two, three, four," [illegible] low, quite surprised, [illegible] to her and said [illegible] ever!"—Youth's Companion.

Fish or Golf Story.

While driving to the [illegible] Newark golf course a [illegible] sent his ball into the [illegible] killed a two pound fish. [illegible] fish were found [illegible] looking marks of the [illegible] Standard.

His Choice of Fruit.

"My view on [illegible]," he said firmly, "is that it should be [illegible] It is detestable to [illegible] ment. It leads to"—

"Jake," said his wife, [illegible] patiently, "are you talking [illegible] the door all open when we have [illegible] chimneys?"

"Sure," said Jake.—[illegible] Ledger.

THROWING THINGS AWAY.

The Time When You Weary of Hoarded Incumbrances.

"I am beginning to throw away things," said Mr. Flittingby, according to the New York Sun—"going through my papers and things and throwing things away.

"I find among them newspaper clippings about things that I would never have thought of again but for this reminder and some things I have forgotten so completely that even the sight of the clippings does not recall to me why I cut them out and saved them, so unimportant really are many of the things about which we bother ourselves or which at some time we found of interest.

"There are letters from men long since dead, and old bills that recall forgotten periods of our life that now seem strange to us, we live so much in the present. And why keep these old receipts? The men that gave them are dead now or moved away, and these accounts will never be sent in again, and if they were they have long since been outlawed by the lapse of time. Throw them away.

"Here are old birthday cards, some pretty, with affectionate, well meant greetings, bringing most pleasant memories, though they do remind us of the years that have gone since they came to us. And why should we preserve them longer? We can remember, we can cherish them without them to remind us, and they would only be dusty when put in the old papers in the drawer. So I basket gently with them.

"And here, as I live, are some old valentines! Well, well! They do make us young again. But that was long ago. Why should we keep them longer? So I basket gently. We have the valentine habit now.

"There are so many things that we put away to save, so many things we claim to cherish among household gods for us when we are gone, that we are going to keep while we live, and it takes us happily a long time to get where we can throw the gleaning of the past from us with a happy and thankful heart to make life room a big gift to the future, and to gladly enjoy it. But dead, we take little account of the years, but then comes a time when we begin to realize that we have but make room and no more.

"Now, I have arrived at that time of life when I begin to throw away for heaven's sake, think I am only taking a beautiful view. But I find life never seemed to me as full of joy as now, and I'm glad of a long stretch of the past with memories and understanding between me and enjoyment in everything and I take this broader view of things and am glad too much by dwelling on the accumulation of the past. I'm just going through it and throwing things away.

"This bit that I've been going through today is just what I have accumulated in the quarter of a century I've got at one, a bit of a letter of one time, and an enough I can't throw away, for of what use will it be now to anybody? What business is it of mine—I mean why shouldn't I cast such stuff out here myself and not have it to cumber things up for somebody else to throw away?

"There may be some things of my own that I'll want to keep, though all other people will want to keep all these things I will cast out as of little book, of this sort, yes, to me of much interesting, valued memory, but this I'll throw away and look on the desks cleared that the more."

The Old Man's Views.

"Did you hear 'bout the old negro experience in the [illegible] business?" "No; what was it?"

"Why, he put $20 in bank—the only he'd ever got clear—an' the boy he'd been the cashier came and told him he'd better keep a gun on the bank, as they [illegible] gun around, an' he was liable to lose it."

"Well?"

"Well, he kept round that bank constant that the bank people got pictures of him an' thought he was goin' to blow the bank up. Wouldn't he pass the cashier cake and pie, and lend him rental horse, always [illegible] he's in sight. An' it was [illegible] way with the bank people, an' the chickin. An' when he went to get a job as janitor of the bank, an' his attention, an's he could do any [illegible] in case of trouble, they had [illegible] all, an' the police looked after the [illegible] every, an' they was just about to [illegible] him to a lunatic asylum, when [illegible] friends explained things, an' [illegible] they'd throw away the old bank an' buy him [illegible]."—Baltimore.

The Invitation.

"If you please, sir," said a member of a church committee, to a visiting [illegible] pastor is to be [illegible] next week, and I have come to [illegible] whether you will be able to [illegible] us." "Certainly," replied the [illegible] minister, who was considering [illegible] matter, "and I hope you will [illegible] preaching engagements [illegible] Answers.

GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA

THE MODERN MERCHANTS of TODAY and for EVERYBODY

BOTH PHONES

THE RECENT CONFEDERATE REUNION AND SOME INTERESTING REMINISCENCES

As Told by Captain A. R. Elmore

I intended immediately on my return from the Richmond reunion and Jamestown Exposition to write you something of my trip, feeling that it might interest some of your readers, and the "old Vets" who did not go, but have not been able on account of sickness to do so before now.

So far as the pageant in Richmond is concerned I shall say but little. So much has been written by abler pens than mine of the different reunions that there is little to be said that would be new. There is a wonderful sameness in them all. The same exercise, the same parade, the same excitement of meeting old comrades whom you have not seen for forty or more years, the familiar "Hello Bill," and "How are you, Bob," all go, however, to make up a program for the "old Vet," the sameness of which, though of intense interest to him, holds little for the second generation.

A Magnificent Parade.

The parade was a magnificent spectacle. The general and staff officers, all in the old regulation Confederate States uniforms, on fine horses, looked well and presented to the Confederate eye moving pictures of the days of 1861 to 1865.

Noticeable in this line were the old "Richmond Blues" and "Richmond Howitzers." These two companies, in gorgeous uniform, made a magnificent appearance, whose "tout ensemble" showed vastly different from what it did at Appomattox, after four years of hard service and fighting. The guns of the battery looked so bright and new and the sleek, fat horses so different from the Confederate "shadows," that hauled them about on many of the hard-fought battlefields of the war. Two old Virginia Vets, whom I was with as the parade passed, turned to me and said: "Captain, how long do you think those fine uniforms and hats would have lasted on the heights of Gettysburg?" I replied: "As long as there was life left in a Virginia soldier."

The unveiling of the J. E. B. Stuart monument was a grand and glorious spectacle, though only those who were very near could hear one word of the speech.

Grave of Jeff Davis.

I also visited the grave of Jefferson Davis in Hollywood Cemetery. By the side of his grave are those of Mrs. Davis and his daughter, Miss Winnie. Nearby is the grave of Fitz Hugh Lee. I will attempt no description of this truly beautiful and picturesque cemetery, in which lie the remains of three Presidents of the United States, and the only one of the Confederate States, also the bodies of many of the most famous Confederate generals. I will summarise by saying that the cemetery extends along a high bluff overlooking the James river, is beautifully laid out in plots, covered with green grass, broad walks and lovely oaks covered with ivey and Indian creeper. It is a very large cemetery, and has, I will venture to say, more beautiful and costly monuments than any other in the South.

Battlefield of Seven Pines.

I also went to the battlefields of Seven Pines and Fair Oaks, and stood upon the historic spot where Gen. Jos. E. Johnston fell, when struck by a piece of shell, and also the little grove of oaks to which he was carried, and from which the place derives its name. Those oaks still bear the scars of battle, showing in many places the "bealovers," where the bark had been chopped into by the hatchets of ruthless relic hunters, looking for bullets. Beyond Fair Oaks is Seven Pines, about one mile. These places are on the Southern railroad from Richmond to West Point, at the head of the York river and are also reached by an electric railroad from Richmond. At Seven Pines there is a small station, one or two little shops, a battlefield relic shop containing shot and shell, broken and rusty old guns, bayonets, swords, knives, canteens and old pieces of uniforms, hats, caps, etc. There is also a small cemetery of many of the old heroes, who fell upon that fateful field. It is enclosed by a wall with a neat and attractive cottage for the janitor or keeper, and is kept in beautiful order.

Trip to Petersburg.

I also took the electric car and went over to Petersburg and visited the "Crater." I could recognize nothing in the country around there though my regiment, the Fourth South Carolina Cavalry, under Hampton, did lots of hard service and fighting all around there. Though not actually engaged the day the crater was blown up, our cavalry was but a mile or two from it, on the left, and heard it although we did not see it.

The battlefields now give but little evidence of the tides of life and death that once surged across them. The hoe and the plowshare have succeeded the musket and sword, and the old breastworks now only show as plantation ditches, grown up in weeds and underbrush. Bullets, battered and rusty, can still be picked up on the field in front of the crater by close hunting. I was fortunate enough to secure six, which however, I bought for a quarter from a little darkey.

A Pleasant Party.

In the Pullman car from Jacksonville with me were Gov. F. P. Fleming and his wife, and also his daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who, with Miss Alene Buckman, daughter of Senator H. H. Buckman, were maids of honor to Miss Mitchell, the sponsor for the Jacksonville camp of the Sons of Veterans, and formed a trio of young ladies whose delightful charm, refinement and elegance of manner, contributed much to the enjoyment of our party, and were a distinct credit to the society of Jacksonville. My son, Tom Elmore, was also one of the party, and I am sure no more pleasant or congenial a little party left the State of Florida than ours.

Meets Old Friends.

At Murphey's Hotel in Richmond I found my friend of more than forty-five years ago—Allen Deas of Camden, S. C., and also a warm friend and cotemporary of Kit Matheson of your town. Old Kit will, I know, be both interested, and pleased to know that "Pap" and I hung together for several days and took in many of the "good things" that were to be seen and had in Richmond. While there we were joined by Walter and Ed Kennedy from Texas, who left South Carolina at the close of the war. We were boys together, and intimately associated together for years before the war began, and we had not met before in more than 40 years. They are own nephews of Mr. Chas. E. Haile, and first cousins of Mr. J. D. and W. C. Matheson. It was indeed a happy "little" reunion—this little party of old friends from my own old South Carolina, but is chastened by the knowledge that it is the last perhaps on this earth. This thought, however, is to a great extent bereft of sadness by the reflection that we can if we will, meet in a better land beyond. We have met "like ships in the night," we have passed; we are gone.

In the parade were many old veterans who will never see another reunion—their snowcapped heads and feeble step forceful reminders of the fact that

And all that Wealth e're gave
Await alike the inevitable hour.
The Paths of glory lead but to the grave."

Confederate White House.

I also visited the Confederate White House, the home of our President during the four years' war. It is now owned, I believe, by the city of Richmond, and is conducted as a Confederate museum, in which are exhibited war relics of every description—the swords of Lee and Jackson, and many others of note, a lock of Gen. Lee's famous horse, Traveler's mane, and many pistols, guns, pikes, Confederate money, and a heterogenius mass of everything that was ever used in war. The house from the outside looked just as it did when I last saw it in 1864, but the inside was far different. The soft carpets are all gone and instead the floors have been turned into cement to withstand the constant tread of visitors, who go there from all parts of the world.

To approach the President of the United States in these days a lot of "red tape" has to be crossed, but in those days, when the souls of men were tried, the humblest private could easily reach our noble President. I remember well calling upon him in 1864 when I was but an unkempt private in Company K, Fourth S. C. Cavalry, and a cordial reception each by him and Mrs. Davis. I will here state that when my father, Franklin H. Elmore, represented South Carolina in the U. S. Senate as the successor of the great Calhoun he and Mr. Davis became warm personal friends and always took a house together. Mrs. Davis and my mother were equally as warm in their attachment to each other and I then only six years of age was quite a pet of both. Mr. and Mrs. Davis also was frequently left in the care of Mrs. Davis when my mother would go out.

How He Was Commissioned.

This is by way of introduction to the manner in which I gained access to Mr. Davis' presence. As I approached the house a sentinel was walking the pavement in front of the house, and I was peremptorily commanded to halt and denied admittance. Just then the front door opened and a negro looked out. I immediately called to him to tell Mr. Davis that "Mr. Elmore of South Carolina" had called. In less than a minute the door was open, and in my mind I can now see the noble figure of our President, as he called to me "Are you Mr. Elmore?" "Yes sir."

"Come right in. I am glad to see you, sir. Are you a relative of my old friend Col. Franklin H. Elmore?"

"His son, sir."

"Ah, then you are the little boy I used to dance on my knee in Washington?"

"Yes sir, the same."

He then took me into his library, and for half an hour chatted with me upon terms of as perfect equality as if I had been one of his generals. He then and there promised me to instruct Mr. J. A. Seddon, our Secretary of War, to commission me as Second Lieutenant in the First S. C. Regular Infantry, which was done shortly afterwards, said commission bearing the signature of "J. A. Seddon, Secretary of War."

I had the pleasure of letting your Editor, Hon. H. H. McCreary, read this commission, which was afterwards destroyed when my house and contents were burned in the great Jacksonville fire in 1901.

I was then lead by Mr. Davis into the small room on the right, as you enter the front door, and pleasantly recalled to the remembrance of Mrs. Davis, who, although the room was full of generals and big officers, took me by both hands, saying she wanted me all to herself, and lead me to a small tete-a-tete sofa and devoted fifteen or twenty minutes exclusively to me, recalling many happy associations of herself with my mother and father. I recognized the room perfectly, even though quiltless of carpet and furniture and filled instead with only relics of a dead hope, and a dead past.

I have given the above facts in no spirit of egotism, but rather as a criticism of the Democratic tendencies of those days, as compared to the Republican measure of red tape, now necessary to the approach to any high Government official.

I had the pleasure of meeting several times at West Point, Virginia, with the Rev. Mr. Waugh, who used to live in Gainesville. He looked remarkably well and enquired after many of his old friends—says he would be glad to come back to Florida, and that he really hones after some genuine Florida syrup.

In conclusion let me give my record of service in the Confederate States Army—it may interest some of my friends:

Private in cavalry company from Columbia, S. C., my uncle, Alex R. Taylor, captain on duty at Charleston during battle of Fort Sumpter, April, 1861. Private Company C, Cavalry, Hampton Legion, arriving in Virginia just in time for first battle of Manassas. Col. Wade Hampton wounded severely. Lieutenant Col. Ben Johnson killed. Our cavalry at Ashland and not engaged. In 1862 Sergeant-Major of Seventh South Carolina Battalion, Hagood's Brigade, Hokes D. V.; 1864—Resigned and went back to cavalry as private Company K, Fourth South Carolina Cavalry, Butler's Division, Hampton Cavalry in Virginia; 1864—Appointed Second Lieutenant, First South Carolina Regulars, stationed in St. Augustine; 1865—Regiment surrender with Gen. Jos. E. Johnston at Greensboro, N. C., refused my parole, stole a mule out of quartermaster's department and struck out for home, swam the Catawba river above Charlotte, and got home safely, having never surrendered. Suppose I am still an "unconstructed Rebel!"

A. R. ELMORE

Is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly and sets it in the sun, for she knows that if left sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tubes are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then, that if the stomach churn is foul it makes foul also what is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all humors or diseases arising from bad blood.

If you have bitter, nasty, foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms or conditions as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

Clara Jones, Demented Negro Woman, Was Transferred to Chattahooche.

Clara Jones, the unfortunate negro woman who was a few days ago adjudged insane, was taken by an attendant Monday to the Hospital for the Insane at Chattahoochee.

There is now in jail the demented negro, Si Bailey, who was apprehended near Grove Park Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Arch Zetrouer and brought to this city. No commission has been appointed in his case.

Including Bailey, there have been six cases of lunacy in this county within the past thirty days, and it may be surprising to state that they have cost the county nearly $300.

WADE JOHNSON KILLED BY LIGHTNING

Well Known Colored Man Meets Sudden Death.

HE WAS WELL LIKED

The White People and All Regarded Him as a Most Desirable Citizen. Always Peaceable and Industrious. Body Found Under a Large Tree.

A [illegible] day of the sudden death of Wade Johnson, a [illegible] colored [illegible] who was killed by lightning near his farm at Rocky Point in the thunder storm of Monday afternoon.

From reports it seems that Johnson after [illegible] afternoon's work, had gone [illegible] away [illegible] tending [illegible] water [illegible] ing [illegible] which [illegible] thunder [illegible] at the [illegible] oak tree [illegible] the [illegible]

It [illegible] fatal [illegible] when [illegible] of a [illegible] stopped [illegible] front of his master's house. The wife [illegible] something was wrong, the team coming without its driver, and immediately summoned the neighbors. A searching party was soon formed and went to the lake, where in the vicinity, about fifty yards distant, they discovered the dead body of the man under the tree which had been struck by lightning.

Johnson was a good man, a man of his own affairs, and was thought a great deal of by the white people of that section, who declare him a citizen of the most peaceable nature. He leaves a wife and several children.

EXPRESSIONS OF FLORIDA EDITORS.

One of the boys on the Atlantic Coast Line pier Tuesday morning put up a joke on the pelicans. He took a long piece of stout twine and tying a small shiner to each end threw it among the birds. Instantly one pelican swallowed the fish on one end and another on the other. Then the first one wanted to go one way and the other bird started to go the other, and of course both were brought to a sudden halt. After a long struggle the pelicans broke the string. The same boy again tried the trick but this time the pelican swallowed one end and then flew off, the other following him and trying to get the fish at the other end of the string.—St. Petersburg Times.

Thomas Townsend, a Lake Butler boy who has been spending the summer at Norwalk, together with several other men, recently made an examination of a large Indian mound in that section. They found the bodies of a number of Indians, the bones showing them to have been men of extraordinary build. The strangest part of the examination was that the leg and arm bones of each Indian were broken off smooth—the legs broken midway between the ankle and knee and the arms between the wrist and elbow. Each bone was broken in exactly the same place and manner and the bodies were found lying side by side. Will some historian or scientist please give us an explanation of this?—Lake Butler Star.

We continue to get unsolicited testimonials from visiting Florida newspaper men to the substantial excellence and progressive spirit of our rapid, growing little city of Live Oak. Editor McCreary of The Gainesville Sun is the last to come forward with his tribute and it is characteristic of the man—frank, clear, honest, comprehensive and right to the point, with no frills on it, refreshing, sensible, and without a trace of flattery in it. Mr. McCreary doesn't find our city "pretty" because some of the buildings on the business streets are not in line with the others, but as a matter of fact that can be said of very few of them, uniformity being the rule in nearly all of the commercial district. But barring this minor objection, The Sun editor finds us all right and does us justice.—Live Oak Daily Democrat.

The New York Produce says a number of Philadelphia produce merchants are interested in the Florida West Coast Company, which has recently been formed in Philadelphia and is incorporated under the laws of Delaware with an authorized capital of [illegible] of which $[illegible] has been [illegible] its object is the development of the [illegible] around St. Petersburg and of the lower part of the Pinellas [illegible] into a fruit and vegetable growing section, and also as a health resort. Special attention is to be given to raising of early vegetables and the company may go into citrus culture, as it controls about 5,000 acres of fruit and vegetable lands and about 1,500 building lots. A number of irrigating plants will be put in and greenhouses will be built to start plants early for setting out in season in the open ground. A 300-foot driveway will be built across the peninsula. A few more such companies will develop the resources of the West Coast until it will rival the East Coast as a wealth producer, and eventually be a favorite resort of tourists.—Times-Union.

It seems to be generally understood that in resigning his position as State Senator Hon. Frank Adams of Hamilton county has fully made up his mind to be a candidate for the United States Senate, to succeed Senator Mallory, and will soon formally declare himself to that effect. When he does so we may look for a senatorial campaign that will arouse interest throughout the State. Mr. Adams is strong on the stump and he will doubtless give the people in every county in Florida an opportunity to hear him. Senator Beard and Col. Brown have both announced for the place and Mr. Sparkman remains the only uncertain factor. If he enters the contest it will be a great fight, as it should be, for the Senatorship is a prize worth a gladiatorial struggle. We want a strong, well-balanced man in the Senate who doesn't lose his temper and say foolish things and take untenable positions; who is a good talker and knows how to think on his feet; who has the "sublime genius of common sense" and who neither runs to spectacular garrulity and prolixity in one direction nor embeds himself in the silence of conscious incapacity for debate in the other. The candidate who best meets those requirements will be the man to do Florida credit in the United States Senate.—Live Oak Democrat.

Religious Services End in Row.

Phoenix City, Ga., July 9—An imposing procession wended its way to the guard house at an early hour on Sunday morning. Two bodies of negroes in the suburbs of that city, both engaged in religious services, had a general mixup and officers went out to restore quiet. In the crowd they arrested were two preachers and 17 negroes of the band. The negro musicians, carrying their instruments, were marched in a body to the lock-up, when one by one they arranged bond. No one was seriously hurt in the disturbance that occurred.

Million in Bonds Floated.

Charleston, S. C., July 9.—The city of Charleston has just floated one million dollars' worth of 30-year, 4 per cent bonds, being an installment of the proposed issue of $3,500,000 refunding bonds, due in 1909. The bids were particularly gratifying, reflecting creditably upon the Charleston securities. The entire issue was subscribed for by Charleston banks and institutions. The bonds are exempt from taxation and the interest is payable semi-annually.

SIXTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Indianapolis Ready to Receive Catholic Societies of United States.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 9.—This city [illegible] for the Catholic societies [illegible] United States on July 11th to 17th.

It is [illegible] that everything is now complete for the sixth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies, which will open in the [illegible] church dignitaries at SS. Peter and St. Paul's cathedral Sunday, July 14th.

Besides the regular representatives there will be in attendance two Indian chiefs from South Dakota, Chief Hornchond and Chief Nowater, who will represent ten thousand Catholic Indians. The chiefs will be accompanied by a missionary. Hon. Jacquin Perran, president of the Federation of Porto Rico, is also expected.

At the convention, such subjects as divorce, socialism, libraries, schools, Indian affairs and the crusade against theatricals and advertisements will be discussed.

POWER PLANT FOR AMERICUS.

Estimated that $150,000 or $200,000 Will Be Invested in Enterprise.

Americus, Ga., July 9.—Financial [illegible] regarding an immense [illegible] plant, together with [illegible] In Americus [illegible] just [illegible] and a be[illegible] of construction [illegible]

[illegible] were granted a local [illegible] by city council of Americus three months ago, a bond of $25,000 being required for the beginning of work within a specified time and faithful compliance with all the terms of the contract. Philadelphia capitalists who visited Americus three weeks ago for the express purpose of looking the situation over have since agreed to take all the bonds issued, and to supply all the money required for the enterprise.

It is estimated that $150,000 or perhaps $200,000 will thus be invested in Americus.

Life Lost in Pittsburg Fire.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 9.—One man was killed, another seriously injured and damage to the extent of $15,000 was done by fire which originated in a barber shop owned by Joseph Degonnait, Carson street, in the South side district, and spread to four adjoining buildings. Wm. Reynolds, 51 years of age, a night watchman, inhaled flames and died on the way to the hospital, and A. Michael Scarcesinder was seriously hurt by falling glass. Rats are thought to have uncovered an electric wire, causing the fire.

W. B. DICKINSON,
Tax Collector, Alachua county, Fla.

Gainesville, Fla., June 5th, 1907.

Should any persons who have paid their taxes, find any items of their property advertised to be sold in the foregoing list, if they will send me the number and date of their receipt, I will investigate, and if correct, will have same immediately taken from the list of my successor.

We have been as careful as possible in preparing this list, but it is a very difficult undertaking, which covers a period of eight months' collections. There is a possibility that some items may have gotten on the list on which the taxes had already been paid. I will cheerfully correct all such errors, without any expense to the tax payer, provided my attention is called to it, as per above request. Very respectfully,

W. B. DICKINSON,
Tax Collector.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Merritt and children left yesterday for their home at Lakeland. Mrs. Merritt and children have been for some time here guests of Mrs. Merritt's parents, Col. and Mrs. I. E. Webster. On their return home they were accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Crouch, who will spend a few weeks as their guest.

Mrs. H. G. Rembert left yesterday for her home in Highland, after several weeks spent here with her mother, Mrs. W. P. Garrett, in the meantime being seriously ill. Mrs. Rembert expects to make her departure soon for the mountains, with the hope that the change will build her up again. She will be accompanied by her mother, and possibly her husband.

Mrs. Phillip Miller and daughter, Miss Mercedes, and the former's mother, Mrs. A. G. Austin, left yesterday for Sewanee, Tenn., where Mrs. Miller's son, Austin, is attending the University of the South. They expect to be absent several weeks, as Sewanee is one of the most healthful resorts in the United States, and they will recuperate in that section for some time.

With a desire to spend the summer pleasantly for both recreation and health, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Edelstein and children left Sunday for Daytona Beach, where they have secured a neat five-room cottage for the summer. Mrs. Edelstein's health has been none too good recently, and her friends here trust that the change will prove beneficial to her. During Mr. Edelstein's absence the store will be in charge of his brother, David Edelstein.

Misses Maud Lewis and Grace Wolf, two of Alachua's popular young school teachers, left yesterday for Wilcox, where they will immediately open the Cherry Sink summer school. This is one of the most successful summer schools in the county, and it goes without saying that under the direction of these young ladies will make a fine showing at the end of the season. Miss Lewis was a teacher in the Gainesville Graded and High School at the last term.
